

Fly Rod

Fly rods can be made from bamboo (like pandas eat-yum) or human-made things such as materials mixed with plastics. Rods are flexible but very strong as fish normally fight back once in the hook.

Rods are usually 9-to 15 feet long. That is why they come apart in sections so you can carry them and not poke someone's eye out.

